MURPHY-THOMAS

Wednesday at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Thomas, Rev. R. Lionel Rowe, spoke the solemn words that united in marriage, Mr. Ralph Everett Murphy and Miss Mabel Claire Thomas. The couple were unattended.

The charming bride looked very sweet in a becoming gown of white batiste, trimmed with lace. Her traveling dress was a brown tulle made suit.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served at 1 o'clock. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties with the minister and his wife were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy departed on the afternoon train from Schellville to spend a short honeymoon in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

On their return they will occupy the fine new cottage built by the groom for his bride on Napa St. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Miss A. Caminata visited home folks Sunday.

THE RACE

Does not depend on the start but on the finish. It is staying power which carries many a runner to victory. It's like that in business. Many a man starts off in the race for business success with a burst of speed which seems to assure victory. Presently he begins to falter and at last he falls and fails. The cause? Generally "stomach trouble." No man is stronger than his stomach. Business haste leads to carelessness and irregular eating. The stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition become diseased. The body is inadequately nourished and so grows weak.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach and so strengthens the whole body which depends on the stomach for the nourishment from which strength is made. Symptoms of biliousness are: not infrequently the complexion becomes pale and sallow; there may be frequent attacks of bilious or sick headache, bitter taste in the mouth, tongue coated white or covered with a brown fur, unnatural, dry, harsh, or acrid condition of the skin, or branny eruptions and pimples. There is likely to be "backache," with tired feeling, lassitude and a sense of debility. There is depression of spirits with a decided tendency to be discouraged and despondent. There is loss or irregularity of appetite, uneasiness in region of the stomach, oppression, sometimes sour stomach, "heartburn," nausea and "water-brash," flatulency, and acid eructations; the bowels become irregular, usually constipated, and occasionally subject to diarrhea, attended with colicky pains. The foregoing symptoms are not all present in any one case, nor are any two cases alike in every respect. The only way to help a disordered liver and cure biliousness is to treat it as it is—the great, organic, human filter of the human system. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cleanses and clears it; invigorates and revitalizes this most important organ by its wonderful alterative power. There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from digitalis, opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is no medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and allied organs.

"This is to certify that I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and thank it as the greatest medicine in the world," writes Mrs. W. M. Young, of Wile, W. Va. "I took down six months ago and called in my physician and he gave me medicine but I grew worse. He said I had dyspepsia in its worst form. I decided to try your medicine and began to improve. I used five bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three of 'Purifier' and now I am doing my own housework. A number of my lady friends also are using Dr. Pierce's medicine and they recommend it highly. They feel well and prosper in your grand work."

"Please accept my thanks for the benefit which my child has derived from your medicine," writes Mrs. W. A. Morgan, of Silica, Mo. "I have been troubled for nearly a year with liver complaint, indigestion and constipation. I had heard of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and they did him great good. I have him the 'Discovery' about eight months and several vials of the 'Pellets.' He seems to be perfectly well now."

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine times out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness, caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

There is a popular demand from El Verano, Glen Ellen, Sonoma and other parts of the valley, for the bus to make regular daily trips to the baths and it is Mr. Richard's intention if possible to meet that demand.

He is also thinking seriously of keeping the baths and swimming tank open at night for the accommodation of the crowds. This will probably be done in the near future.

“BOY”
By JULIA B. FOSTER
Copyright, 1904, by Julia B. Foster

One day, the oxen having mysteriously told through sand to their folklocks these people, with the sun shining in their faces, passed a square rail in closure. Learning from his horse, the captain read the inscription printed upon an upright headboard. Boy walked at his stirrup.

“Sacred, sacred,” she spelled

“Sacred to the memory of the Oatman family.” Her father touched her shoulder and with her foot on his, she sprang to his pony, where he clasped her right with one arm. Then the wagons fled slowly past, and every driver and all the other men and women of the train read the epitaph and looked with anxious eyes ahead. Their experiences were sobering them rapidly

Nevertheless, the Oatman family, murdered by the Tontos, were simply unfortunate. Why, look at this Robinson train—and the Oatman train was one wagon.

“Who was Mr. Oatman?” questioned Boy, her head against her father's breast.

He ran lightly over the history in reply—the treacherous visit of the Indians to the lonely camp, the sudden attack, the murder of the parents and infants, the branding of Lorenzo, the captivity of Olive, the oldest daughter, and little Mary Ann. He impressed upon her the difference in their own circumstances, yet he felt her shrink as it were, into his flesh, and involuntarily he pressed her closer.

“What did we come for, paw?” she whispered.

“Come for? Why, Boy, the valley of California, where you shall be a millionaire's daughter some day, I hope.”

“Sacred, sacred,” she spelled hope,” he replied almost gayly, for that purple greed of gold was always blooming before his eyes even along the endless stretches of the great sand. Yet what was his desire more than another man's—the desire to better himself? Inspired by it, men run over the earth like ants.

One day they discovered the bones of a man of old paths along this track less way, that they should have followed in his footsteps—and by his garments and his pack they knew him.

It was the man who had shouldered alone months before. How had he endured the solitude and the hardship to this point? Great heavens! The burzards that wheeled and slowly passed through the air like floating flakes of smut!

And then the Indians appeared by twos and threes, stunted, ill-favored creatures, who ate beans and drank coffee by the camp fire—such a fire, made of old tin snips and dried cactus trunks! Now and again, too, several of the cattle were missing.

Once in an effort to regain them the men brought home a pony, an untimid, pink thing, with wild eyes and pink nostrils, and then Tigre, the dog, came in with an
